

SENATOR HALL: Doug, on the committee amendments, and we're dealing with LB 461, is that correct?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, right.

SENATOR HALL: And have... you have incorporated the committee amendments into the bill?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: The committee amendments, they're on the white sheet in front of the fiscal note in the bill book. Subsection 1 deals with updating of the Federal Controlled Substance Testing Regulations.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: What is involved there?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: That's another one we last year took those and I'm going to...as I'm talking, I'm searching for my materials and that, but what we did, we adopted those and this also updates those regulations effective to January 1, 1991. Some of the major changes we had in those drug testings we did last year were the preemployment testings. You remember the debate, the discussion we had on the floor last year about preemployment testing, those regulations were all amended in February of 1990 at the federal level. We chose to, as a state, and done that in the past, take those federal rules and regulations for our own. And so this merely updates those as well. Some of those...

SENATOR HALL: Where are they represented, I guess, in either the committee amendments, the bill itself, or the Journal? Where would you find those? Or is it just a notation to the federal guidelines?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: It's the date change, Senator Hall. If you look...and I'm trying to...

SENATOR HALL: Yeah, it's in the committee amendments, line 3...page 3, line 18, strike "1990", it shows stricken, and insert "1991".

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Are you looking at the...I've got to make
